Don

Thanks for the information regarding the open house. We plan to attend. Since this is a public forum and it being conducted "in cooperation with... Harris County..." I would appreciate it if you would give me a call so we can discuss the County's roll and coordinate.

It has been some time since the U.A. Army Corps of Engineers took up its independent review and we've not heard any news of how that is going. Any news on how that is going or when we might see the roll out of the proposed clean up?

Best wishes
